

Hallelujah!

Update #4

April 6, 2024

Dear musical friends,

We have reached a wonderful milestone!

As of now, we've accepted, and received registrations & deposits from 142 participants. This includes 97 in the chorus, 5 artistic staff, and 40 companions. (This is not counting one additional soloist who is local.)

Thank you all for being so responsive and patient about all of our emails and phone calls and for navigating the confusing process involving two separate entities: the tour company (ACFEA) and the festival organizers (us).

Most importantly, thank you for all your words of encouragement and appreciation. This is truly a labor of love for us and they mean a lot.

Now What?

First of all, fewer emails from us! That's right, Hallelujah!

Next Payment Due 4/25

Scores

- Published scores and where to buy them are listed on the website, under the "Performers" tab, Click the "Repertoire" button. You'll also see the program order for the 2 concerts and Mass participation.
- Very important: Be sure to order the edition of your scores that we have listed, especially the Requiem, otherwise you will have the wrong page numbers, and possibly different measures, rhythms, and/or and notes.
- We will ALL be using the Bärenreiter edition of the Requiem.
- Printable PDF scores for a few pieces that are in the public domain will be up on the Repertoire page as soon as I get them done--probably mid-May if not sooner.

Practice Tracks...

...will be available on the website around mid-May as well.

Wardrobe

We'll post details about wardrobe soon. Check the Performers page from time to time, and we'll also email you about it. It will involve accessories (ties for men, scarves for women.) They'll both be around $10-15. You'll be able to purchase them through our website (not ACFEA). We'll give them to you in Salzburg. See the picture below for an idea of how we'll look.

Mozart-Salzburg Forum

We plan to add a Forum to our website in a few months. This will be a place to make connections, build our community, ask questions, find ideas about what to see in and around Salzburg, where to go if you want to extend your trip, etc.

Stay tuned.

That's it for now!

Very well done, everyone!!!

Mitchell and Laurel
